

DEADLINE EXTENDED: AUG 31

The deadline for submitting papers to the special issue of Con-Textos Kantianos – international journal of philosophy devoted to Kant's aesthetic theory has been extended to Aug 31.

Con-Textos Kantianos – international journal of philosophy prepares a special issue on Kant's aesthetic theory to be published in December 2020.

Editor: João Lemos (Nova Institute of Philosophy, Nova University of Lisbon)

Keynote-authors: David E. W. Fenner (University of North Florida), Hannah Ginsborg (University of California, Berkeley), Ido Geiger (Ben-Gurion University of the Negev), Serena Feloj (University of Pavia), and Virginia Figueiredo (Federal University of Minas Gerais)

The editor invites authors to submit papers on Kant's aesthetic theory to the following email address: contextoskantianos@gmail.com. Papers should be prepared for blind-review and should not exceed 12.000 words. Guidelines can be found at <https://www.contextoskantianos.net/index.php/revista/about/submissions>. A separate cover letter (including name, institutional affiliation, and contact information) must be sent to the same email address.

The deadline for submissions is 31 August 2020.