

Kant and the Norms of Action: A Revaluation of the Synthetic Apriori

July 27-30, 2023, "Erbacher Hof", Mainz

July 27, 2023	July 28, 2023	July 29, 2023	July 30, 2023
Arrival	9:00 am Welcome		Departure
	9:15 am Pauline Kleingeld: "The Groundwork's 'striking similarity' to the Prolegomena"	9:15 am Oliver Sensen: "The Categorical Imperative as a synthetic a priori principle"
	10:15 am Stefano Bacin: "Kant on Ends as Norms of Action"	10:15 am Sofie Møller: "Synthetic a priori in the Doctrine of Right "
	11:15 am Coffee Break	11:15 am Coffee Break
	11:30 am Konstantin Pollok: "Moral Law, Categorical Imperative, and the Concept of an Absolutely Good Will: Comments on the Synthetic A Priori in GMS III"	11:30 am Kate Moran: "Civil Disobedience, Honeste Vive , and the Innate Right to Freedom"
	12:30 pm Lunch	12:30 pm Lunch
	2:30 pm Karl Schafer: "The Real Ought to be the Rational: The PSR as a Principle of Practical Reason?"	2:30 pm Jens Timmermann: "The Fact of Reason and the synthetic a priori"
	3:30 pm Coffee Break	3:30 pm Coffee Break
	3:45 pm Saniye Vatasever: "Kant's Deduction of Synthetic A Priori Practical Principles"	3:45 pm Anastasia Berg: "Making Ends Meet: Kant on Happiness"
	4:45 pm Michael Gregory: "The Possibility of Synthetic A Priori Principles of Right"	4:45 pm Nicholas Dunn: "On Types and Tokens: Reflection and the Synthetic A Priori in Kant's Theory of Practical Judgment"
		7:30 pm Conference Dinner	