Call for Panel and Paper Proposals: ECPR General Conference 2026 | Jagiellonian University | Section of the Standing Group on Kantian Political Thought | 8-11 September 2026

The ECPR Standing Group on Kantian Political Thought is delighted to announce that its application for a section on “Kantian Philosophy in the Age of Technology” (co-chaired by Christoph Hanisch and myself), as part of the ECPR General Conference (Jagiellonian University, Krakow, 8-11 September 2026) has been successful, and 8 panels have been allocated to the Section.

As a result, paper and panel proposals for the section “Kantian Philosophy in the Age of Technology” are now being invited. Paper proposals may be submitted individually or together with other 2-4 papers, as part of a panel proposal, on a theme related to that of the section.

The following are suggested panel topics, but this is an open list:

1. Kant, artificial intelligence, and political agency;
2. The Moral Law and developments in robotics;
3. Health, autonomy and privacy in the age of technology;
4. Kantian approaches to climate change and environmental disasters;
5. Cosmopolitanism, space exploration and colonisation;
6. Kantian ethics and policy in a time of information disorder;
7. Kant, just war theory and hybrid wars;
8. The social contract in the digital age.

If you are interested, please submit your proposal by 5 January 2026 (midnight, UK time), as follows:

Propose a panel

Propose a paper

In case you have any questions, please contact us at: kant.ecpr@gmail.com

All welcome!

Best,

Sorin Baiasu (University of Liverpool)

Chair of the Steering Committee (ECPR Kantian SG)